6. How we will use information about you

We will use your personal information when the laws allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal information in the following circumstances:

1. Where we have to comply with a legal obligation.
2. Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
3. Where we need to perform the contract we have entered into with you.

We may also use your personal information in the following situations, which are likely to be rare:

1. Where we need to protect your interests (or someone else's interests)
2. Where it is needed in the public interest (or for official purposes)

6.1 We will generally process your personal data for contractual necessity in providing membership services and events. We may also use personal information for additional relevant and related purposes where you might reasonably expect us to do so, where the benefits of doing so are not outweighed by your own interests or fundamental rights or freedoms. This may include:

6.1.1. To maintain our records and other administrative purposes, including updating your details and preferences.

6.1.2 .To assist with queries, complaints and dispute resolution:

6.1.3. For communications related to membership and invitations to participate in canine market research or canine health studies:

6.1.4. To assist with upholding our club constitution and taking action in cases where there may be a breech of the Club Rules or Code of Ethics.

6.2. WE will ask for your direct assent IF we intend to use your personal data for marketing purposes. Where our processing of personal data is based on your having given consent, you have the right as a data subject to withdraw that consent at any time. If you wish to revoke this right, please notify the Secretary using the contact details set out in section 2 above or section 9 below.

6.3. You have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. In the United Kingdom, the supervisory authority is the Office to the Information Commissioner, full contact details for which can be found at <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/>.

7. Recipients fo Data

7.1. We may use service providers to help us provide you with our services. Personal data may be transferred to such service providers, who act for or on our behalf, for further processing in accordance with the purposes(s) for which the data was originally collected or may otherwise be lawfully processed.

7.2. Such thirty parties have contracted with us as data processors under the requirements of the GDPR. They are contractually bound to only use personal data for the agreed purpose(s).

Relevant persons working for these third parties will have access to your personal data under the terms of the data processor contract, but only to the extent necessary to perform their services for us.

7.3 These data processors agree to implement reasonable contractual and technical protections, to keep your data confidential, not sell your personal data to third parties and to not disclose your personal data to third parties except as may be required by law, as permitted by us oral stated in this Privacy Policy.
